TEXAS DEMOCRATS VOTE TO SUPPORT EISENHOWER

McCARTHY IS FAR AHEAD IN SENATE FIGHT

By DON WHITEHEAD
Milwaukee (AP) — Jubilant Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy was the landslide winner today of Wisconsin's P senatorial nomination. He led his victory an endorsement of the people of "my campaign to the government of subversives that would destroy it." He promised his "all-out support" to Republican presidential nominee Dwight D. Eisenhower, pledged to the voters he would continue his Communist-in-government charges, which some regarded as the act of a patriot others see as smear tactics. But there was no trace between McCarthy and Sen. Schmitt — the one defeated in yesterday's primary election for the senatorial nomination. McCarthy charged McCarthy had a "through an amazing and audacious hoax" perpetrated on voters, and he added: "The result of this election is an alluring thing. . . . When the truth dawns, many people will all their support of Joseph R. McCarthy in this election with me." McCarthy, 42, seeking second term, brushed this aside by saying: "The people of Wisconsin have endorsed me. They have given endorsement to my campaign to the government of subversives that would destroy it." With 2898 precincts out of 3,224 voted, the count was: McCarthy 450,079; Schmitt 181,702. McCarthy's victory will pit him in the November election against Thomas F. Fairchild of Verona, Henry Reuss of Milwaukee, the candidates for the Democratic nomination. McCarthy, who recently underwent major surgery, did virtually all campaigning while Schmitt, almost entirely on radio, won in 11 Wisconsin counties, including some of the thickly settled areas of the state.

CAPITOL HILL AGAIN TAKEN BY UN FORCES

By ROBERT B. TUCKMAN
Seoul, Korea (AP) — Battle-hardened South Korean infantrymen recaptured Capitol Hill in a wild night bayonet charge and then threw back counterattacking Chinese at daybreak today. A U. S. Eighth Army staff officer said "the ROKs Republic of Korea troops are on that hill to stay." In five days of vicious close-in fighting for the Central Front hill, troops of the crack Capitol Division have killed or wounded at least 2,300 Chinese, the Eighth Army estimated. That is nearly the equivalent of a Red regiment. The U. S. Fifth Air Force said fighter-bomber pilots last night knocked out 100 Communist supply trucks, the highest score since early June. Fifth Air Force pilots helped soften Chinese defenses before the Koreans began their victorious fight up the slopes of Capitol Hill. The Air Force said 76 individual flights were made over the hill by fighter bombers, raking the Chinese with machine gun fire, bombs and flaming jelled gasoline. U. N. artillery then took over and pounded the hill crest and Red approach routes with a murderous barrage.

Judge Henry Hipple Dies at Lock Haven

Lock Haven, Pa. (AP) — Judge Henry Hipple of the Clinton County Common Pleas Court died in his sleep last night. He was 72. Mrs. Hipple found the jurist's body in his bed this morning. Mrs. Doris E. Kissell, coroner of Clinton County, said he died of a heart attack. Judge Hipple had presided in the Clinton County Court since 1939. Judge Hipple, apparently in good health, heard arguments yesterday in cross suits of John A. McGuire, Renovo, and the Keta Oil and Gas Company, Bradford, involving ownership of a big natural gas well in the nearby Leidy Field. Several million dollars in royalties are involved in those suits.

Five Penalized For High School Hazing

Pittsburgh (AP) — Five students at nearby Brentwood High School today are banned from taking part in extra-curricular activities on charges they whipped three other boys with belts in a hazing session. The action was taken by Principal Clark Metcalfe after parents of the three victims declined to bring charges at a school board meeting. Said Metcalfe: "The refusal of the parents prevents me from expelling those who participated." The hazing, none of whom was identified, no longer can take part in athletics or other school activities outside of regular classroom work.

Strike of Radiator Firm Workers Ended

Pittsburgh (AP) — Threat of a strike by 1,200 workers at five plants of National Radiator Co. was ended today following agreement on a new two-year contract. The pact, worked out in a lengthy session yesterday between the company and the CIO United Steelworkers, calls for hourly pay hikes ranging from 12 1/2 to 21 1/2 cents, retroactive to June 1. Present wage rates were not disclosed. Union officials had scheduled a walkout tonight at two plants in Johnstown and others in Duncansville, New Castle and Middletown.

Beginning on September 22, the same program will be carried out in all county schools, and the movies shown where electricity is available to operate a projector. The county program will occupy almost three school weeks and will begin with Pleasant and Star Brick schools on September 22; Irvinedale and North Warren on September 23; Kinzua and Lincoln on September 24; Clarendon and Washington on September 25; and Lincoln and Washington at Sheffield on September 26. Professional and Cultural Growth Is Shown by Teachers

During the period from Sept. 1951 to Sept. 1952, the Warren Borough teachers were active in a number of ways to grow professionally. These ways included attendance at schools and conventions, travel in and out of the United States, etc. Eighteen members of the 1952 staff attended school for additional credit, 10 at Pennsylvania State College, three at Edinboro, one at Pitt, three at N. Y., and one at Ohio State. Three of these earned additional degrees. While 18 seems a substantial amount, 44 teachers attended schools in the preceding year. However, the professional employees were enrolled in 42 different classes, which took in a wide variety of subjects. Other statistics show that 10 staff members attended a total of 38 days in workshops, nine attended a total of 36 days in conventions and 21 attended a total of 54 days at educational conferences. Fifty-three teachers reported traveling over much of the United States, one of whom traveled in 27 states, over 11,000 miles, and took about 800 pictures. Sixteen teachers traveled in Canada and two in Mexico, two visited in the West Indies and three traveled over Western Europe.

Announcement has been made by Nat' Drake, Secretary of the Warren Chamber of Commerce that his office is now compiling the information to be contained in the 1952-53 annual edition of the folder — "Accommodations for Hunters, Fishermen and Tourists in Warren County." These questionnaires should be returned to the Chamber office by September 15th. GENERAL GETS BIG BOOST ON INDIANA VISIT

By The Associated Press
In an unprecedented move, the organized Democratic party of Texas marched into the camp of Republican Dwight D. Eisenhower. At an Amarillo convention yesterday, cheering Democrat leaders gave Texas Democratic voters the green light to vote for the general and try to swing Texas' 24 electoral votes to Eisenhower in November. The convention, hosting Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson, voted to put the Democratic candidate's name on the November ballot, but in a resolution went further and asked Gov. Allan Shivers and other party officials to campaign for Eisenhower.

GAVIN UNHURT AS SHELL HITS BATTLEFRONT

Central Front, Korea (AP) — Representative Leon Gavin of Oil City, one of 10 United States congressmen who are touring the Korean battlefield, got close enough to frontline action today for a Chinese mortar shell to land 50 feet away. In company with Reps. Frank Wilson (D-Tex.) and Dewey Short (R-Mo), Mr. Gavin was visiting Bunker Hill on the Western Front when the shell landed. None of the three was injured. The 10 legislators in the party reported today they found no critical shortage of ammunition. One reason for their visit was to check reports that ammunition was in short supply. The congressmen issued a statement saying the ammunition supply is enough to meet the present tempo of the war. They are members of the appropriations subcommittee of the House Armed Services Committee. Rep. O. Clark Fisher (D-Tex.), acting chairman, told newsmen they found soldier morale high. Gen. James A. Van Fleet, U. S. Eighth Army commander, accompanied the visitors.

en. Taft Can Afford To Be Calm About Support for Ike

By JAMES MARLOW
Washington (AP)—Sen. Taft can afford to be calm about the kind of support he gives Gen. Eisenhower. He is one of those fortunate men who no longer has to be troubled by ambition.

He has abandoned hope for the job he desired above all others: the presidency. It's unlikely Eisenhower, if the general wins, will offer Taft any other spot like as well as his present one in the Senate.

No other job would give him a forum for his views and opinions, which he likes to express. He has a following which is growing.

His Senate job—he was elected in 1950 to a six-year term—is safe for another four years. He's 63.

The fact that the majority of the Republican party, as represented by delegates to the National Convention, turned him down in favor of Eisenhower doesn't necessarily mean the majority doesn't share his views.

It may have chosen the general because it thought he had a better chance of winning in November, though the party has turned Taft over three times now—in 1940, in 1948 and in 1952—for a crack at the presidency.

This does not seem to have made even a slight dent in his thinking. He has indicated in no way that he has changed. And he now represents the thinking of many Republicans who might have preferred him as a candidate. For two weeks now at least, there has been increasing talk on an on-again and off-again basis—that he was going to confer with Eisenhower, who has apparently been anxious to have him campaign vigorously.

Several times, without committing himself to any promises of beating the bushes for the man who beat him in Chicago, Taft said he wants to talk with the general to learn his views and what he'd do if elected.

This hesitancy of Taft's leaves the door open for him to decline such a speaking tour if he doesn't hear from Eisenhower what he wants to hear.

If Taft stays out of it and Eisenhower wins, the general's supporters will, it seems sure, try to topple Taft from his present position of Republican leader in the Senate.

If Eisenhower makes commitments to Taft and then goes on to win, with Taft's help, Taft would be in a better position to keep his Senate leadership post.

ERIE REGISTRATION

Erie county officials have expressed the belief that total voter registration in that district will exceed 97,000 by the time the registration office closes next Saturday, raising the number of registrations in the county. They estimate the registration total will be 80 per cent of the countians eligible to vote.

RACER OVERCOME

A 22-year-old Warren racing driver suffered carbon monoxide poisoning Sunday afternoon during the racing events at the Jamestown Speedway on Stockton road. He is Garry Littlefield of Warren who was admitted to Jamestown General Hospital where his condition is reported as fairly good today. Attendants said Littlefield completed the 50-lap feature race late Sunday afternoon, then collapsed. It was reported that fumes leaked into the cab of his car during the race.

BABY CASE APPEALED

Appeals against Crawford County Court rulings making Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Marhoefer of Meadville, Route 7, adoptive parents of a 17-month-old girl, have been filed in Pittsburgh by the baby's natural mother, Mrs. Bonnie Sue Stanley, 18, East Bank, W. Va. Attorney George J. Barco, of Meadville, who with Norman Landy, of Pittsburgh, was counsel for Mrs. Stanley, said that ordinarily an appeal against the ruling giving the Marhoefer the right to adopt the child would be filed in Supreme Court and the appeal from the habeas corpus decision would be in Superior Court. But since the two court proceedings were so closely related, the Supreme Court will handle the entire case.

WOODCOCK SEASON

A growing number of early bird hunters will note with interest that the woodcock season this year is one month long, as in 1951, but opens one week later than last year. The U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service advises that the timber doodle season for 1952 extends from Oct. 15 to Nov. 14, inclusive. The daily bag limit of 4 and the possession limit of 8 is again in effect. Daily shooting hours for woodcock hunters are one-half hour before sunrise to sunset, Eastern Standard Time, except Sunday, and on Nov. 1st on the first day of November, Pennsylvania woodcock hunters must wait until 9 a. m. to conform with the opening hour of small game season. Woodcock hunters are not required to own a migratory bird hunting (duck) stamp.

TRAILER BURNS

Jamestown Sun: A carnival couple and their one-month-old baby were left temporarily homeless Monday night in Celoron as fire gutted the bedroom section of their trailer, scorched other walls, and destroyed personal belongings including much of the child's clothing. Mr. and Mrs. Milo C. Lawson and the baby were visiting nearby relatives when the fire broke out, apparently caused by wiring at 59 East Livingston Avenue, Celoron. Mr. Lawson discovered the blaze about 10 p. m., then called the Celoron Fire Department.

ment which was able to save the rest of the trailer. Firemen estimated the damage at about $200, not covered by insurance. The trailer was located in the yard of Milo G. Lawson, father of the owner, whom the couple were visiting before going to the Sugar Grove Fair. They recently left the Eastman Show at Youngsville Lawson said he operates concessions.

PENNA. GAS PLANS

A spokesman for the Pennsylvania Gas Company told the Titusville Herald last evening that "there will be nothing doing for some time" toward any drilling in the acreage northwest of Titusville which his company leased during the summer. A newspaper reporter got this answer when he inquired of the company if there was any truth to the rumors that a test well would be announced shortly. Pennsylvania Gas leased about 3,000 acres west of Oil Creek in the rectangle roughly bounded by a line from Hydetown, through Troy Center to Townville, to Tryonville and back again to Hydetown. Efforts to lease farther north than Tryonville disclosed that much of that property was already tied up by a driller who has several shallow oil wells in that area.

NEW SPARTA OIL WELL

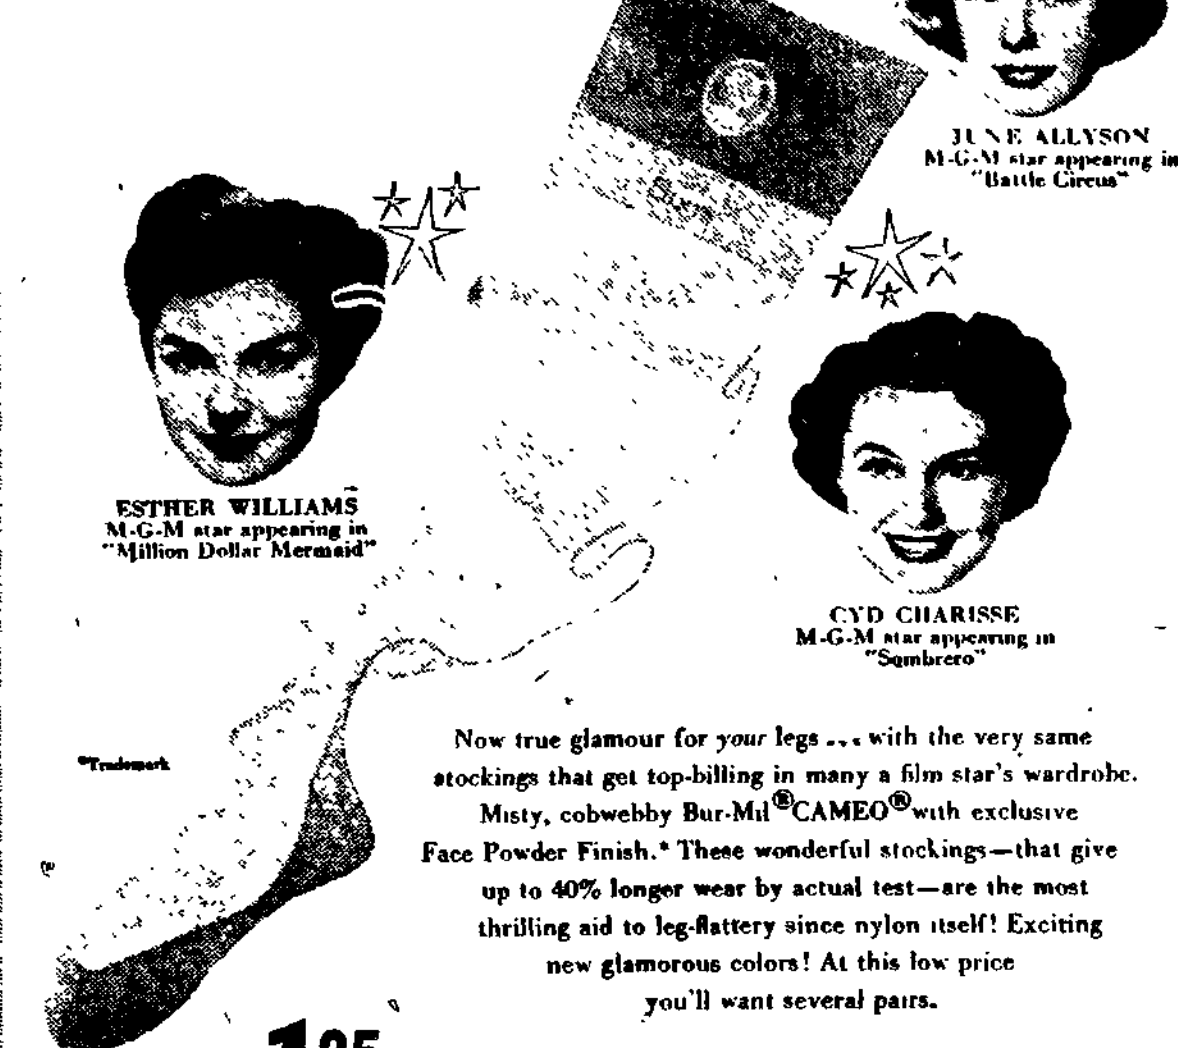

According to the Titusville Herald, pumping is expected to start today or tomorrow on the No. 1 well of the Oil Creek Valley Gas and Oil Company located on the Ralph Blakeslee farm a mile south of Spartansburg. The "bridge" placed about 100 feet under the dirt shells which were fired last week is impeding efforts to bail the oil pool which has formed. Secretary-Treasurer Hahn said. This bridge will be removed today. Work will begin next week on a new well in that vicinity.

SAUCERS AGAIN

Corry Journal: Several Corry and area persons are wondering today just what it was they saw Sunday shortly before noon time. Mrs. Charles Tripp of the Columbus section was the first to notify The Journal of the, for lack of a better name, "flying saucer." After that there were several reports of local residents who spotted three planes flying in a westerly direction over the city with a fourth disc-shaped object keeping pace with them. As they described it, the disc was up in front, then beneath and then back of the three planes, never keeping any permanent position but flying about in the general vicinity of the planes. When the aircraft disappeared into the west, so did the disc, the observers said. The local report was one of two of "saucers" being spotted in Western Pennsylvania over the weekend.

Have You Registered Yet?

That's the question the Warren Jaycees are asking every eligible voter this month. It's all part of their "Voter Registration Drive" to increase the vote turnout here this year.

Alex Fino, Jaycee president, said figures compiled by the American Heritage Foundation show only 44 per cent of the nation's eligible voters went to the polls in 1950. "We believe one of the paramount reasons for the scant vote turnout each year is that people forget to register," he said.

"Voter registration is especially important during this presidential election year. Throughout the nation Jaycees are telling the people the important thing is not how they vote; it's whether they vote."

Mr. Fino stated the Jaycees will provide free transportation to anyone wishing to register on September 12th or 13th from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. Simply call L. Ekey, 1188-J, F. Buchanan, 5841-J4, or J. Nelson, 3307-R. Arrangements will be made by the Jaycee car pool. He also added that the Jaycees are asking employers to give employees 20 minutes off to register.

THE WET WEEKEND
Wall Street Journal

As fall comes limping on the heels of a sear summer those of us who live in the sections of the country where it has not rained at all since last spring are once more under the impression that week-ends are wetter than the rest of the week. Brilliant Fridays seem to be always followed by dank and chill Saturdays and Sundays.

Of course, a close study of the meteorological data will argue that it ain't so; that one day of the week is historically no damper than its neighbor. But here, as in other matters, when statistics do not confirm what we know to be so anyway, or proves something so that we know isn't, then the only wise course is to throw out the statistics and cling to the dogma.

And so here is a matter for the political candidates. While they are promising to fix up the country so everything will be prosperous and fix up the world so that everything will be peaceful they might as well promise to fix up our week-ends by guaranteeing that the sunshine will be dispensed where it will do the most good.

In fact, a shrewd candidate could do two promises in one. We would gladly let the government take our next couple of wet week-ends and redistribute them to readers in the drought areas where rain would be much appreciated—and where, we suspect, complaints about the rain aren't.

FEDERAL RED TAPE

A nearby example of government "red tape" is this experience by Joseph W. Stayman, manager of the Jamestown Business College, as related in an editorial in The Salamanca Press:

A student entered the college under the GI Bill of Rights on September 13, 1951, three days after the fall term opened. He was charged $18.35 for his books, the amount to be paid later by the Veterans Administration.

But a VA auditor reasoned that because the student had entered the college late he had not had full use of the books and could not be charged the full amount. As the college term consists of 84 days, the auditor said the VA could pay only 81-84ths of the total book charge. The VA then ruled that the college had overcharged the VA sixty-six cents. Eventually, the VA deducted the sixty-six cents from another payment due the Jamestown College.

Mr. Stayman studied the vouchers and tallied up the auditor's time and came to the conclusion that it probably cost the taxpayers $40 or $50 to collect the sixty-six cents. But it's the principle that bothers him.

He's still wondering if the VA thinks that 3-84ths of the pages should have been torn out of the tardy student's textbooks.

LIONS' DAISY SALE

Announcement is made by the Sight Conservation and Blind Committee that the Lions Club will sponsor the annual Daisy Sale in Warren Friday and Saturday, October 3 and 4. Funds raised by the Sale provide money for eye examination, eye glasses, medical and surgical care for the underprivileged, and a generous response on the part of citizens is anticipated.

Chairman of the project is Dr. A. A. Marceca, who has working with him on the committee Ernest G. Garber and Irving Poust. Collectors will be members of the Omega Phi Delta Sub-Deb Club, which provides assurance that this important detail will be handled most efficiently. Mrs. Helen Clifford, county tuberculosis nurse, and her capable assistants, will be on hand to give help in any capacity that they may be needed.

The Lions' Daisy Sale is a most deserving and worthwhile activity and as usual may be expected to meet with whole-hearted support from citizens generally.

With W. F. (Bud) Maier as manager, the future of the Municipal Airport takes on a most encouraging outlook. Maier received his training under the late Virgil (Slip) King, and is amply qualified to carry on the activities there in the same satisfactory manner as they were before the death of the popular aviator.

Clarendon citizens are reminded of the open meeting to be held Thursday evening in the I. O. O. F. Hall there for the purpose of discussing the jointure of Clarendon borough with the Warren school district.

Beginning tomorrow the Registration office at the court house will be open from nine a. m., until nine p. m., providing an opportunity for every one to become qualified to participate in the presidential election in November. Be sure you are registered.

POLITICAL UNREST

Here And There

It was fifty years ago today that The Evening Times announced "Richland is now a part of the borough!" An article appeared on page eight of the September 10, 1902 issue, under the heading "Richland in the Boro, The South Side now Become a Part and Parcel of Warren, No Remonstrance Filed!" The story is as follows.

Richland is now a part of the borough.

This statement will come as a surprise to many who supposed that some further legal steps would be taken before the annexation was finally taken into the fold. Our neighbors across the bridge stole a march on us, however, and came in several days ago when nobody was looking.

Under a recent act of the legislature all that is required is a petition for annexation made by a majority of the taxpayers of the new territory, its acceptance by the council, the filing of the papers in the prothonotary's office, the publication of the proper announcement, and if there are no remonstrances within thirty days the annexation is accomplished.

All of these steps have been taken in connection with Richland, will be well represented when Republican Candidate Eisenhower appears in Pittsburgh some time next month. . . . The first Republican rally of the fall campaign in Crawford county will feature two statewide candidates on the GOP ticket when U. S. Senator Edward Martin, candidate for reelection, and Weldon B. Heyburn, state auditor general who is candidate for state treasurer, will address a meeting at the court house in Meadville next Monday evening. . . . A total of 43,299 persons visited the swimming pool in Oil City's Hasson-Ramage park during the past summer according to a report made to council there, which states that the attendance and financial reports of the pool during 1952 was the most satisfactory in the pool's history, with total paid admission during the summer amounting to 40,821 and free swimmers 2,478. . . . Incidentally the total gross receipts amounting to 40,821 and free swimmers 2,478. . . . Incidentally the total gross receipts amounted to $5,565.70. . . . George Harris, former Warren man, superintendent of the Western Union offices in Washington, D. C., postcards that he arrived home tired and happy from his recent visit back to the old home town.

Terse, Tart and Timely: Over in Titusville Earl Mack has been sworn in as a special police officer and has begun work as the city's dogcatcher, being one of two men who applied for the post at the last meeting of council. . . . Early indications are that Warren in connection with Richland, will be well represented when Republican Candidate Eisenhower appears in Pittsburgh some time next month. . . . The first Republican rally of the fall campaign in Crawford county will feature two statewide candidates on the GOP ticket when U. S. Senator Edward Martin, candidate for reelection, and Weldon B. Heyburn, state auditor general who is candidate for state treasurer, will address a meeting at the court house in Meadville next Monday evening. . . . Polled Editors' Sage Write-Ins Sample Public's Political Ideas

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—This is the observation of John O. Hjelte, editor of the Bismark (N. D.) Tribune.

"If people shut their eyes, put their fat bellies complacently, figuring 'Why upset Paradise?'—the Dems will win. If they're worrying about the more distant future and have paid any attention to the charges that the U. S. is drifting toward the shoals, internationally and domestically, they'll vote to kick out Truman (in the person of Stevenson) and put Ike in."

This is but one of many sage "write-in" comments on a political-trend poll of the 700 newspaper editors receiving this column through NEA Service. These observations give what is perhaps the best possible cross-section view of what people all over the U. S. are thinking today. Here are some more comments:

"The two candidates are too much alike for any great emotional campaigns for or against either. The platforms will be lost in the usual campaign prattle. Dollars and cents seem to mean more to the voter than anything else. Ike has an uphill fight against cold arithmetic."—Mexico (Mo.) Ledger.

"I HOPE fervently that I'm wrong in predicting a Democratic victory, but I'm pessimist enough to fear that a majority of the voters will fail for the siren song of phony prosperity. They're being bribed with their own money—and either don't know or don't care."—John Ayres, Port Arthur (Tex.) News.

"This is corn-hog country. The farmers are about equally divided between the two parties, but in neither have I found a man who really understands what the farm policy of either party amounts to. All any of them know is that they resent control but want high prices."—Ken Allen, Albert Lea (Minn.) Evening Tribune.

"The national presidential primary would be an ideal solution, but it cannot be worked out satisfactorily or economically."—J. Earle Mavity, Watseka (Ill.) Iroquois County Daily Times.

"It would be just as ridiculous to make Eisenhower, who has had only military experience, President as it would be to make Stevenson, who has had only government administration experience, a five-star general in charge of the Korean war."—Joe Parham, The Macon (Ga.) News.

"The South is beginning to realize it needs a real two-party system and if Eisenhower doesn't endorse compulsory civil rights legislation, he stands an excellent chance of carrying four southern states and perhaps a few more."—J. W. Gore, Ft. Lauderdale (Fla.) Daily News.

"INSTEAD of amending the Taft-Hartley law, it would be better to repeal it and all other labor laws, then make one code to apply to everybody. Union monopolies should be broken up. So should monopolies of capital."—Robert S. Kendall, The Reporter, Martinsville, Ind.

"The inconsistency in American politics today is that most people talk Republican but really think Democratic. They decry socialism but could not give up any of our social legislation, the farmers cuss administration meddling and the Brannan plan but they would never do away with parity, conservation loans, and so forth."—Sylvan Meyer, Gainesville (Ga.) Times.

"The fact that most of the nation's newspapers are Republican means nothing. They have been Republican for years and most of them are getting farther away from the people all the time. . . . You might as well count on it—It's Stevenson and Sparkman, sure as shootin'."—Louis A. Eckl, Florence (Ala.) Tri-Cities Daily.

Mr. Eckl was the only editor to score a bull's-eye in predicting Truman's victory in 1948, in a similar poll conducted by this column.

Grant, who experiments with new types of corn, says that this high-gear variety produces ears when two weeks old.

Bradford Oil Firm Faces Injunction In Ownership of Well

Lock Haven (AP)—A Bradford oil company was given an additional 10 days to reply to an injunction suit involving ownership of a natural gas well in the nearby Leidy Field.

Judge Henry Hipple of the Chilton County Court yesterday directed the Keta Gas and Oil Co. of Bradford to file an answer by Sept. 19 to a suit started by John A. McGuire, Renovo.

Several million in royalties are tied up in cross suits over ownership of the well which McGuire drilled.

Keta filed the first suit in ejectment against McGuire, claiming he drilled the well on property it had under lease. McGuire countered with an injunction suit to prevent Keta from prosecuting the ejection suit. He was granted a preliminary injunction.

McGuire's attorneys, in their argument yesterday, urged a quick decision in the case. Keta's attorneys, on the other hand, advised against haste because of the importance of the suits.

Both sides indicated Judge Hipple's eventual decision would be appealed to the State Supreme Court.

Firemen at Sugar Grove Planning Fair

Sugar Grove—Thirty-five men were present for the regular meeting of the Sugar Grove Volunteer Fire Department and spent the greater part of the evening in completion of plans for the community fair this week.

It was reported the men expect 13 pieces of fire-fighting equipment for the Mutual Aid Drill and fire-fighting demonstration at 7:00 p. m. Thursday, with companies taking part from Kiantone, Celoron, Lakeview, Ashville, Panama and Busti, in Chautauque county; Youngsville, Columbus, Russell, Sugar Grove, in Warren county.

Bob Andersen is chairman for the parade planned at seven o'clock Friday night and reported many departments planning participation.

The firemen will also have charge of all food concessions at the fair and the Saturday evening dance.

Reports showed one alarm answered in the past month, a brush fire at the school grounds Friday evening.

It was also stated the marching unit received the prize for the company traveling the greatest distance at Lancaster, N. Y., last Sunday.

At the close of the evening's business session, refreshments were served by Gerald Youme and Alden Stearns.

Extradition Hearing For Fugitive Killer

Pittsburgh (AP)—Leonard J. Badye Zalutsky, 37-year-old fugitive killer, will be given an extradition hearing Sept. 17 in Beaver Falls.

Unless he fights extradition, Zalutsky will be returned to the Florida State Prison at Raiford to complete his life sentence for the fatal shooting of a Miami, Fla., detective. He escaped Sept. 6, 1951.

The former Allentown resident, one of the FBI's 10 most wanted criminals, was arrested by a Beaver Falls detective. A U. S. commissioner yesterday held Zalutsky in $25,000 bond.

Continue Hearings On Size of Price Signs

Harrisburg (AP)—More service station operators were to testify today in a Dauphin County Court hearing on a suit challenging Pennsylvania's amended gasoline price sign law.

Mark B. Robbins and Robert A. Hanson, both of Philadelphia, were among numerous service station operators who crowded the courtroom as the hearing opened.

Robbins told a reporter they had received "anonymous telephone calls within five minutes of each other" Monday night.

Two Norristown gasoline dealers filed the suit questioning the validity of a 1951 act which prohibits dealers from advertising gas prices on signs larger than 12 square inches.

Elton Barton, himself program chairman of the club, was the speaker at last evening's meeting of Youngsville Kiwanis Club, giving a humorous talk on "What Makes a Service Station Check, or Twenty Years in the Center of Youngsville."

At the business meeting, President Ray Weber announced a directors' meeting to be held at his home Thursday evening, and gave a preliminary financial report on the recent Youngsville Community Fair. He announced it a financial success, with considerable credit going to the Youngsville Legion Post for turning in the bulk of the money from concessions to the fair board.

Discussion was also held about the project of Brokenstraw Garden Club to make the entrance to Island Park into a War Memorial for Youngsville. It is planned to create a grass plot about 40 by 80 feet, centered by a native stone with a suitable bronze marker.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Times-Mirror Editor:
One cannot help but feel a little confused, if not flabbergasted, by the inconsistency of a Labor Union that tries to use its influence to prevent hard-pressed landlords from increasing rents, so soon after the Union had succeeded in negotiating new contracts providing for wage increases in two of our leading industries. Under the existing circumstances it would seem the Labor Leader would have shown better judgment had he refrained from injecting himself into the rent control argument.

Grace Church Unit Hears Address By Angola Missionary

Grace church WSCS members opened their fall season with a meeting conducted in the church sanctuary by Mrs. LeRoy Hammerbeck. Mrs. Alexander Kemp was in charge of the devotional period, using for her theme "Gratitude". She cited various ways in which people express gratitude for blessings received and pointed out numerous instances of people's ingratitude. Following the devotion, Ray Bennett sang a solo, accompanied by Mrs. Dwight Silile.

A short business session followed, with routine reports presented. Mrs. Florence Anderson, who was a delegate to the Week of Missions at Chautauqua in August gave a complete and interesting report of the various sessions she had attended.

At the close of the business meeting, Dr. Alexander Kemp gave a very fine talk about his work as a medical missionary to Angola, Africa. He discussed in detail how various diseases have been controlled by eliminating, as far as possible, the insects which carry the germs. Dr. Kemp closed by showing colored pictures of his station in Africa and some of the people with whom he has worked. Following his presentation, a social hour was enjoyed in the church dining room.

Many Phases of PTA Work Emphasized At Meeting of Council Executive Unit

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Community PTA Council, held at the high school last evening, a number of important items were discussed.

John Stachowiak, member of the high school faculty and one of the steering committee of the Warren Youth Canteen, thoroughly outlined plans for the season's parties and regulations governing the recreation spot. Beatty parties will be held on Friday evenings, with Mrs. Walter Mathyer supervising, and the same rules covering all parties held at the canteen: that is, no smoking and no type of alcoholic beverages. Indebtedness has been almost liquidated, he said, and the young people have plans for a number of work bees for refurbishing the rooms.

Mrs. A. Roger Olson presided at the session and announced the play, "Goldilocks and The Three Bears", will be given September 23 in the high school auditorium; also that it will be possible to present "The Three Little Pigs" on April 5. These plays are delightfully entertaining for the children and are staged at a reasonable price. The high school was commended for allowing the council use of the building for this purpose.

Emphasis was again given the School of Instruction to be held September 25 in the First Presbyterian church, with sessions at 1:30 and 6:30, dinner at 5:30. The presence of state and district officers should make this meeting a profitable one for the various units of the borough and county.

Council programs for the year were discussed and some tentative plans drawn up.

A highlight of the meeting was Superintendent Carl Whipple's talk about the progress on school jointure. He also brought out the fact that there are 1,500 elementary children in the various borough schools and the construction of the new Jefferson street building is progressing satisfactorily. He expressed the encouraging facts that, although cost of construction has risen because of inflation, the rate of interest on the loan is much less than on other buildings recently constructed and will, in the long run, bring down the cost to nearly that of the other buildings.

It was announced state conference dates are October 20-22 at Pocono Manor and each unit was asked to make every effort to send its president or a representative. Mrs. Phillip Holman will be driving, it was stated, if anyone wishes transportation.

New Officers Are Named by Auxiliary

Members of Chief Cornplanter Unit 135, American Legion Auxiliary, held their regular meeting at the Legion Home last evening and elected Mrs. John Barr to fill the office of second vice president. A new treasurer, Mrs. Edward Hildebrand, was also named to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Mrs. Ralph West, who will be leaving soon to make her future home in Westfield, N. Y.

The conference to instruct incoming unit, council and department officers in the work of the auxiliary for the coming year will be held October 2-3 in Harrisburg, it was announced.

Members were advised the date for the next regular unit meeting will be announced later, when word has been received from the new district director, Amanda Johnson of Ridgway, concerning her visit for the installation of officers.

A donation of $25 was voted to Deshon Hospital, to provide canteen books for the patients; and plans were discussed for a Gold Star Mothers' dinner to be held some time in October.

The presiding officer, Mrs. John Dahler, named an auditing committee to report at the final meeting for this year, when reports of standing committees will be presented.

To conclude the evening, refreshments were served by Mrs. Charles Rowland and her committee.

Woman Senator Is In Favor of Eisenhower

Philadelphia (P)—Some 350 women attending a political activities conference of the Pennsylvania Council of Republican Women yesterday heard Sen. Margaret Chase Smith (R-Me.) plead for the election of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Sen. Chase told the women that Eisenhower offers them "peace on the foreign front and a cleaning up of the corruption mess in Washington."

She warned her audience that Gov. Adlai Stevenson, Democratic nominee for president, is only "a handle to the old Truman broom, unable to sweep out the dirt inherited from the present administration."

IT MIXES WELL—The want ads of a London newspaper advertised for a tutor to teach this parrot to speak with a Scotch accent. The bird, a Brazilian blue parrot, is owned by a firm making tonic water which mixes well with a stronger beverage, and the company thinks it should speak with a Scotch burr.

HAVOC IN THE AIR—Sea breezes can make a beach a pleasant place to be on a hot day, but pretty Joan Medlin has discovered that they can help disarray a coiffure that's been carefully kept out of the water. Her sister, Dolores, left, is doing what she can to get Joan's hair in place in Miami Beach, Fla., but if the wind keeps blowing—well, she'll just have to go home.

FIRST OF HIS KIND—The Korean War's first triple amputee, Cpl. Angel M. Gomez, 23, of Aibonito, Puerto Rico, waved goodbye to friends upon discharge from Walter Reed Army hospital in Washington, D. C. Gomez' recuperation required 23 months during which time he was fitted with and learned to use both artificial legs and a right arm. He can now drive an auto.

OVERGROWN MICROBE—In Paris, pharmacist Paul Bascon is resting for a few minutes after a walk through Montmartre with his dog, Microbe. The pooch, a 15-month-old Briard, weighs 120 pounds and undoubtedly has a much larger appetite than most microbes.

GI BATHS FOR ORPHANS—Some of the orphans at a home in Tokyo get the scrubbing treatment as others await their turn in the routine. The youngsters are part of the 717 orphans at four institutions in Japan which are being aided by American GIs. The Japanese Charities Fund has collected $70,000 in seven months from U. S. soldiers. THEN WHAT WILL?—The latest version of the Jeep gets a workout under almost impossible conditions during its debut before Army officers at the Aberdeen, Md., Proving Ground. Even mud, at hubcap heights, couldn't stop the four-wheeled workhorse from pulling out of this mess.

WINE RUNNERS—German waiters in West Berlin are starting a unique race by carrying a wine bottle and a full glass balanced on a tray. The traditional event shows spectators how efficiently the boys can get about without tipping—or being tipped.

CHANGED FOR THE BETTER—When she was born a year ago in Minneapolis, Minn., Kathleen Mary Kuduk weighed only one pound and 13 ounces, and was 11 inches long. There were doubts that she would survive, but now she tips the scales at 21 pounds and is 29 inches tall—and a very healthy young lady, too.

JUMPING GRANDMOTHER—Mrs. Marie McMillan fired a challenge to a Russian woman who claims to have broken Mrs. McMillan's 24,800-foot record parachute jump for women, which she made in 1932. Shown in New York with jumping equipment, Mrs. McMillan, a former WAC and a grandmother, bitterly assailed the claim of Elena Vladismakya to have jumped 27,670 feet.

MAYBE THEY'LL TRANSPLANT IT—Student nurse Ingrid Ljunggren, 20, is sitting atop a ladder to get a better look at the huge sunflower which was growing behind the Augustana Nurses' Home in Chicago. The flower is 13 feet off the ground and measures 10 inches in diameter. The leaves of the plant are 17 inches across. Even Kansas would admire its state flower in Illinois.

NECK BREAKER—Little Linda Reichert, two, had to crane her neck to look up at her daddy as he leaned against a tent at the Minnesota State Fair in St. Paul. Gilbert Reichert is six feet eight inches tall and was one of the fair's "biggest" attractions. He claims he is the only giant in the world who has a child.

The city's "Rescue Street," with its imitation bombed buildings, is being used to train defense personnel from all over the country.

Bell Picks Tentative Team for Corry Game

WARREN WILL HAVE A FAST, LIGHT ELEVEN

Coach Fred Bell has announced his tentative starting lineup to face the strong Corry Beavers when they come to War Memorial Field this Saturday to open the 1952 campaign on the gridiron. Warren's team will be fast, light, and formidably offensive.

With four weeks of pre-season practice under PIAA ruling nearly finished, Coach Bell, who will also be making his debut as Warren High mentor, has made definite selections for most positions.

In the backfield, where there is still competition for places, Wayne Morris will fill the quarterback role and veteran Toby Shea, mainstay of this year's squad, will be working the fullback slot. The date is over the left half position, where Lance Mohney and Jim Tridico are still bidding strongly for a starting berth. At right half Don Mahaffy has earned the top spot, but may be relieved by Wayne Hamm in Saturday's fray because of an injury.

Rod Morley, Dragon track star for two years, will be at left end, opposite Warren's other returner, Dick Hegerty on the right wing of the line. At tackles Bob Dickerson and Tom Larson will face the kickoff and at left guard is Del Sedon and right guard, Stu Kornreich. However, there is still some doubt as to the right guard role. Wilbur "Bubba" Johnson has looked good enough to take over the center of the line.

Other reserves bound to see plenty of action Saturday are line-men Dick Hartnett, Don Cummings, Bob Townley, Bill Hawthorne and Dick Suppa. This makes up a 17-man squad that Coach Bell wants to use against Coach Lou Hanna's Beavers.

Injured early in practice drills and still with a bad shoulder, Larry Steele will not be able to play against the Beavers, but will possibly be ready for the Dragon's second encounter. It has also been learned that Jack O'Neill, who acquired a dislocated elbow in the Intra Squad game, will likely be out for the remainder of the season.

Coach Hanna plans on bringing a squad of 36 men with him on the invasion, 15 of whom are lettermen from the strong Beaver team last year.

Through The Wind Tunnel

A few reminders of the season as we fitted the key into the office door this morning: "Nippy, isn't it?" "Guess there's plenty fog up along the creek." "Cold, but those salmon geraniums you mentioned over in Celoron Park by Water street are mighty bloomy!" "Time to dig out those red flannels." "Bought your anti-freeze yet?" "Supposed to go to 87 yesterday but didn't quite make it; winter must be coming." "Good mornin' for hot cakes and country sausage."

Two of the earliest morning lights we see each day are in the two top floor apartments at Fifth and Water.

Mrs. Lee Hunter decided to make us one of her famous pizzas, yesterday, and 'twas a humdinger. You wouldn't believe the size if we told you, and the quality was as great as the size.

Never having any more than passed through the pleasant town of Sugar Grove, we've planned to spend Thursday afternoon there. Years ago, in the days of the "Ramblings" column, there used to be a marvelous apple pie baker in Sugar Grove who visited the Morning Mirror office, upon two different occasions—and well-laden, we might say! Perhaps she'll have an entry at the Fair!

Little Miss Mary Ellen Whitcomb is passing her 100th birthday quietly today in her comfortable bed at Rouse Hospital. There was some little competition early this morning to see who would be first to say "Happy Birthday, Mary Ellen!"

If you want a pleasant experience, drop down to the end of Market street, just beyond Don Smith's garage, and look out over the wide expanse of former Mill Race which have been filled in by Nelson and Ellberg. It's a sight you'll never forget.

Yankees and Dodgers Stumble On Revengeful Former Mates In Weary Pennantville Road

By JOE REICHLER
AP Sports Writer

The Yankees' lead over Cleveland was a skippy one game today following last night's 5-4 loss to the Browns in St. Louis and the Indians' 6-1 triumph over Bobby Shantz and the Philadelphia Athletics.

Brooklyn's once seemingly safe 10½ game bulge over New York dwindled to four as a result of yesterday's 7-1 loss to the Chicago Cubs, several hours after the Giants had thrashed the Pittsburgh Pirates, 11-6.

Brooklyn's woes were further increased by the rapid climb of St. Louis' "longshot" Cardinals, who pushed back into the pennant picture with a 7-5 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies that left them 6½ lengths off the pace.

Two former Yankees—Dick Kryhoski and Clint Courtney—teamed up last night to bring victory to the Browns. Kryhoski, pinch hitting for winning pitcher Dick Littlefield, doubled off Ray Scarborough to open the last of the ninth. An infield hit and an intentional pass, sandwiched around an out, loaded the bases.

Scarborough's third pitch to Courtney hit the catcher to force home Ray Coleman, running for Kryhoski, with the winning run. It was four-time loser Littlefield's first win of the season.

At Ebbets Field, former Dodgers Dee Fondy and Toby Atwell knocked the big hatchmen as knuckleballer Warren Hacker stifled the Brooklyn hitters with seven safeties. Fondy smashed a run-scoring triple and Atwell chipped in with a single that drove in one of the tallies in Chicago's big five-run, fourth-inning rally against loser Ray Moore and Joe Landrum.

Early Wynn reached his 20-victory goal for the second straight season as he pitched the Indians to their sixth straight triumph. Held scoreless through five innings by Shantz, the Indians rallied for two runs in the sixth and added four more in the eighth to hand the little lefthander his seventh setback.

A dozen Giant hits, including homers by Monte Irvin, Don Mueller and Alvin Dark, helped rookie Bill Connelly rack up his fifth straight success since joining the club in mid-August. Five Pittsburgh errors helped considerably, presenting the Giants with six unearned runs.

Solly Hemus' bases-loaded single and Red Schoendienst's two-run double featured a five-run, ninth-inning uprising that gave the Cardinals their uphill triumph over the Phillies. Stan Musial got one hit—his 2,000 major league hit for St. Louis.

Chicago's White Sox advanced to third place in the American League, taking a pair of 3-2 decisions from Washington. Pitcher

Saul Rogovin batted in the first two runs and scored the winning run on a 12th-inning single by Nellie Fox in the opener. Pinch-hitter Sam Mele homered in the last of the ninth to give Harry Dorish the second game win over rookie Mike Fornieles.

Successive homers by Cliff Mape and Joe Ginsberg in the last half of the 11th gave Detroit a 4-3 victory over Boston, dropping the Red Sox into fourth place.

Cincinnati and the Braves swapped shutouts in their twin bill in Boston. The Reds Harry Perkowski bested Max Surkont, 2-0, after the Braves' Warren Spahn had taken a 1-0 hurling duel from rookie Joe Nuxhall.

Westerners Beaten In Cadet Playoffs As Easterners Win

The Easterners overwhelmed the Westerners by an 8-1 count in a Bantam League All-Star game played at Jackson Field last night. Behind the four-hit pitching of Hedman and Albaugh and some heavy stick work that blasted Harrison and Lawton for 10 safeties, the Eastern Division players had little trouble with their opponents. V. Johnson and J. Wooster had doubles and Hedman and Henry, triples, to lead the batting, order for the winners, while Peterson had the only two-bagger for the West.

Optional equipment, accessories, state and local taxes, if any, additional. Prices may vary slightly in adjoining communities due to shipping charges. All prices subject to change without notice.

WE'LL tell you the answer to that one—it's the figures on the price tag.

For some reason, lots of people just can't believe they can buy a Buick at a price so close to "the low-priced three."

Maybe it's because a Buick seems so much better and bigger.

Maybe it's because they think Buick has so much more power and room—which is true. Maybe it is because so many distinguished people own Buicks—which is also a fact.

But the fact remains—if you can afford a new car, you can own a Buick—so let's see what you get.

You get the thrilling power of a Fireball 8 Engine, that's a gas-saving high-compression valve-in-head—as much power as you can get in cars costing $300 to $400 more.

You get as much room as you'll get in cars costing hundreds of dollars more.

You get a ride that cost an honest-to-goodness million dollars to develop.

You get the silken smoothness of Dynaflo Drive.*

You get big-car comfort, styling, durability.

Don't take our word for it. Come in and see for yourself why so many folks are stepping up to this great car this year.

AP News Service

THE four columns of the caravan moved slowly across the harsh, gully-scarred waste of land that lay baked and smoldering in the sun.

Council Grove was more than two hundred miles and two weary weeks behind them.

The fight had ended, as such fights always did, with scores of bruised and battered heads. Clay had no idea who had struck him down, for the melee had been so fierce and so tangled that there was neither time nor inclination to count or measure the blows given and taken.

Buck Royle had been too badly battered to go on, and he had been left behind at the Grove under the somewhat reluctant care of one of his brothers.

After the shambles at the Grove there had been no effort to hold another election, and Graydon had soothed the bruised feelings of the group to some degree by naming Palmer as his lieutenant and Link as commander of the guard. Somewhat to his surprise, Clay discovered that his own standing had measurably increased in the eyes of the train as a result of the trouble.

The wagon train was almost at the camp site now, and Clay saw that Graydon had ridden ahead and halted his horse at the spot that would form the forward point of the wagon corral.

Clay unsaddled and joined the men of his mess, who had gathered around the cooking fire of buffalo chips. It was near one of Burl's wagons, and inside the wagon a man was groaning in agony.

"How's Lopez making out?" Clay asked.

Burl shook his head doubtfully. "I think he's about gone," he admitted. "Gangrene's set in on his arm, and you know what that means."

It had been a typical accident of the trail, one of Burl's Mexican teamsters, had jerked his rifle out of the wagon, barrel foremost, for a quick shot at a running wolf, and the gun had been accidentally discharged as he drew it toward him, shattering his forearm into torn flesh and ragged splinters of bone.

There was no surgeon with the train, and though both Graydon and Burl had urged him to allow them to amputate the injured arm, he had stubbornly refused.

For three days he had suffered the tortures of hell in the jolting, springless wagon in which they had placed him.

"I think I'll go over and talk to him a minute or two," said Clay. "After all, there's nothing else to do for him as far as I know."

"How goes it, Lopez?" he asked gravely.

The injured man groaned. "I think I do, señor," he moaned. "Clay said helplessly, 'If there was anything we could do—'"

"Lopez' eyes burned up into his. 'Señor,' he whispered, 'señor, I was big fool. I should have let you cut the arm away. Señor, you cut it off now.'"

Clay hesitated, knowing that Lopez could not possibly live through the cruel amputation surgery of the frontier. Knowing, too, that it would be an act of mercy to release the sufferer from his unbearable agony.

"All right, Lopez," he said with sudden decision. "By God, we'll relieve you of that arm."

He jumped out of the wagon and strode across to the group of men at the fire.

"He wants his arm off," he said grimly, "and we're going to do it for him."

Burl looked up in astonishment. "Why, Clay," he protested. "You know we can't do it now. It would have been a big enough risk three days ago. Now it's impossible."

"Of course it is," Clay agreed. "But it's no more impossible than leaving him piled up in that wagon to suffer until he dies. If it puts him out of his misery we've done him a favor, and if he should happen to live—"

"He won't," said Burl dryly. "But you may have a point there, at that." He heaved himself to his feet and sighed wearily. "Well," he conceded, "if it's got to be done it's got to be done. Let's get at it."

They thrust a heavy king bolt from one of the wagons into the fire and piled blazing buffalo chips about it until it turned to a rich, scorching cherry red.

A Bowie knife was sharpened against a whetstone until its edge was as sharp as a razor, and an old and rusty saw was cleaned as well as it could be with buffalo fat and axle grease.

Slowly, trying to be gentle and falling miserably in their efforts, they lifted Lopez out of the wagon and laid him on the short buffalo grass beside the fire.

Clay brought a log of a white oak from the wagon and supported it against one arm as he held the leg to Lopez' lips with the other.

Burl called certain men by name.

"You, Lopez, come to help," he said. "Come on over here and hold him while Clay and I do the cutting."

Steadily, the ten men he had indicated came forward and knelt beside the suffering man. They held his hips, his knees, his ankles; two threw themselves bodily across his waist and chest and two more pinned his arms to the ground.

Clay lifted the razor-edged knife, hesitated a second, then selected a spot directly below the shoulder, and then drew the edge smoothly and swiftly across the rotten, swollen flesh.

Lopez screamed and his body shrank and twisted violently as he tried to break away from the men who held him and from the awful, recurring pain of the knife.

There was a gasp of release from the spectators as the bone parted. In the same instant McQuitty lifted the glowing king bolt in heavy blacksmith's tongs and forced it back and forth across the raw, blood-spurting stump.

Burl looked at Clay and shook his head soberly, but Clay's hand on the Mexican's chest caught the faint, spasmodic flutter of Lopez' heart.

"He's still alive,"

Gently he covered the scorched stub of Lopez' arm with a protective coating of axle grease and rose wearily.

"That's all we can do," he said flatly.

Maxim and Kearns Can Get Off Hook By Fighting Moore

Montreal, P.—The next move in the squabble between light heavyweight champion Joey Maxim and the U. S. and British boxing fathers was up to Jack Kearns, the titenolder's manager, today.

Maxim and Kearns had been suspended by the New York State Athletic Commission at the request of the British Boxing Board of Control for refusing to meet the British champ, Randy Turpin, in London. Kearns claimed no such promise was made.

The National Boxing Association, in conversation here, had been asked to concur on the suspension, but after two days of talks a compromise was reached.

It's called for Maxim to meet Archie Moore of St. Louis, a leading contender, in a title match within 60 days. The winner of this bout then would meet Turpin within 90 days.

Kearns can get off the hook with his lighter by signing with Moore.

Plan Test of 'Hell' Bomb During Autumn

Washington (P)—A test of the world's first hydrogen "hell" bomb may be made during the next two months at the United States' remote and carefully guarded nuclear weapons proving ground in mid-Pacific.

A Joint Atomic Energy Commission-Defense Department announcement says a task force will "conduct tests in the autumn months of this year looking toward development of atomic weapons."

The announcement left open the question of the specific type of atomic weapons, but earlier official statements had pointed to progress in developing the hydrogen bomb, which may be a thousand times more powerful than the A-bomb.

More Mines Open As Wildcat Strike Ends

Pittsburgh (P)—Two more Southwest Pennsylvania coal mines opened for production today signaling the virtual end of a sporadic wildcat strike which at one time closed 17 pits and idled 10,000 United Mine Workers.

About 4,000 diggers at Vesta Mines 4 and 5 of Jones and Laughlin Steel Corp. near California in Washington County, voted yesterday to return to work. Still on strike are about 450 miners at J. and L.'s Shanopin Mine.

Milk Price Hearings For Three Districts

THREE EMERGENCIES

Courtney Myers, Union City RD 1, was given emergency treatment at Warren General Hospital this morning following an accident at the new elementary school site, Conewango and Jefferson avenues. Myers, employed by the Moyer Construction Company of Altoona, slipped and fell across a steel joist being installed for flooring in the structure, lacerating his upper lip and injuring his nose. He was discharged after sutures had been applied.

Peter Ciprich, 129 Conewango avenue, received a cut on his wrist this morning while applying a fender brace at Dan's Chevrolet shop, requiring emergency treatment in Warren General Hospital.

Also treated in the emergency room was two year old Ronald Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Parker, 105 1/2 Water street, who required several sutures for a laceration under her chin, received when she fell downstairs in her home.

Ohio Residents Test Turnpike Legislation

Washington (P)—Three Lucas County, Ohio, taxpayers have asked the U. S. Supreme Court to set aside an Ohio Supreme Court decision that the Ohio Turnpike Act is constitutional.

If the high court accepts their petition, construction of the proposed 241-mile toll highway across the northern part of the state could be seriously delayed. Engineers expect construction to begin some time after Dec. 1.

School Has Two Young Kings as Pupils

YOUR FOREST RANGER

Of the fifteen commercial timber species occurring on the Allegheny National Forest, white ash is one of the most valuable, and this is reflected in the stumpage prices realized.

The white ash is but one of 18 different species of ash that are native to the United States, but green ash, Biltmore ash and blue ash are also marketed as "white ash."

One of the most valuable products, that the white ash of this area produces is high quality bat stock. During World War-II baseball bats from white ash, cut on the Allegheny National Forest, reached the far corners of the globe wherever there were facilities for American troops to enjoy the great American game of baseball.

Bat stock must come from fast growing second growth defect free white ash. Old growth, slow growing ash is too "brash" for this purpose. Economic maturity for bat stock ash is reached when the trees are about sixteen inches in diameter measured at breast height. The moist soils along the north slopes of the Allegheny River drainage are ideal for this fast growing, high quality bat stock material.

White ash is also important for tool handles, particularly the "D" handles for shovels and spades and long handles for forks, hoes, rakes and shovels. The straightness of grain, stiffness, strength, hardness, good bending properties, and capacity to wear smooth in use are the properties peculiar to ash that make it suitable for tool handles.

An important characteristic of white ash to the forest manager is its ability to pick up growth quickly, following thinning. It reproduces mostly from seed and the young seedlings develop best where the soil is shaded. However, as soon as the young tree reaches pole size it needs plenty of light to develop, and selective harvesting of less valuable trees competing with it for sunlight, enables the young ash to put on rapid growth forming annual rings of wood that are heavier and stronger than a slow growing ash in an unmanaged forest can produce.

The black ash, which is comparatively rare in this area, was of major importance to the Indians who manufactured baskets from the thin layers of wood in this slow growing species. Paper thin strips of wood were obtained by pounding sections of wood of the desired length until they separated along the annual rings. These tough, extremely pliable strips could easily be woven into baskets.

The range of the ash family is very extensive with species occurring in every state of the Union except Nevada and Idaho.

Its uses are also very extensive ranging from musical instruments to ladders; from machinery to playground equipment; from refrigerators to boats; from surgical supplies to toys, and from bobbins to furniture.

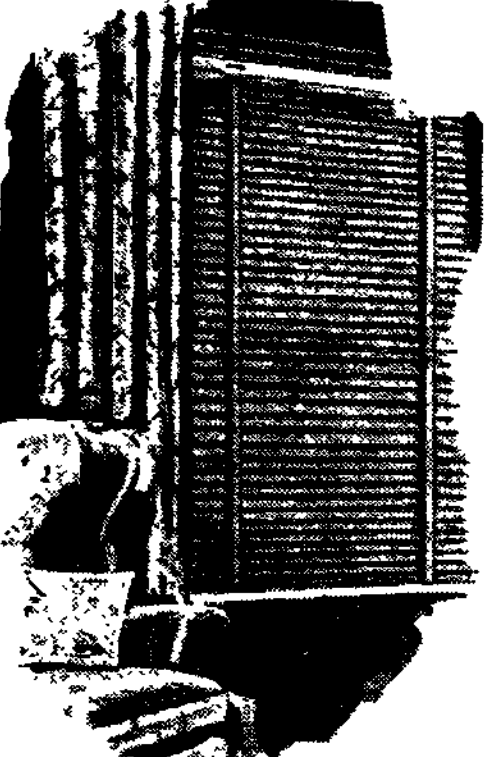

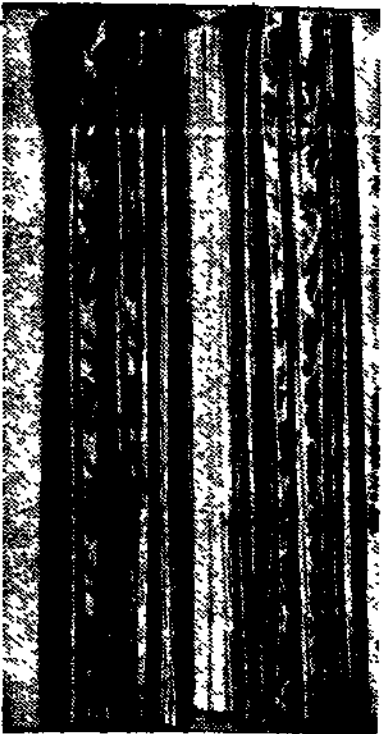

The American Negro is a new race of people whose ancestors represent many tribes in Africa with admixtures of white and Indian blood.
